PIMMS

A local institution and one of the most romantic restaurants on the island. Christened with a bottle of Mount Gay Rum smashed against its white dome in 1988, Pimms has continued to lure diners for over thirty years.

The menu is curated of an elevated Anguillian cuisine, Caribbean classics and international specialities, using the best local organic ingredients and line-catch fish. Set in a truly magnificent setting, the graceful arches surrounded by the serenity of the turquoise waters makes for a truly romantic dinner date.

UCHU

Unwind and soak up the Caribbean atmosphere at Uchu, the only Peruvian eatery on island. By day, savour a selection of delightful light bites and creative cocktails by the connecting pool terrace.

As the sun cascades along the horizon, our chefs team takes you on a tantalising journey through the rich history of Peru with chilies, spices and organic ingredients used as far back as the Inca did when they first created "Ceviche". This is an integral part of Uchu's philosophy and cuisine.
