

Let's MOUNT NELSON Together

Be a Marine Biologist for A Day with Shark Scientist Justin Blake

Discover the extraordinary world that lives beyond Cape Town's shores in the company of a real-life shark scientist. This ocean expedition, exclusive to Mount Nelson guests, and led by Justin Blake, will give you an understanding of the much-maligned fish's importance in maintaining ocean ecosystems as you explore Cape Kelp Forests, octopus gardens and fascinating sea caves. Discover spectacular views of Cape Town, both above and below the sea's surface as you plunge in and snorkel among the kelp fronds. You may even discover other creatures such as starfish, nudibranchs, sea urchins, octopus, seals, penguins, dolphins and even whales.

INCLUDES:

Transport from the hotel, ocean safari on a rigid inflatable boat, shark scientist Justin Blake as your guide, snorkel gear if desired, scientific shark tracking equipment and dry bags. Bring your own: sun protection, towel, change of clothing, warm layers, water bottle.

Ages: 8 years and over (younger children considered individually upon request)

Cost: R23,900 for a half-day tour, up to 8 guests, gourmet picnic basket costs R420 per adult and R275 per child.
