SPECIAL BENEFIT

THE HOTEL

Deep in Peru's Sacred Valley, Rio Sagrado, A Belmond Hotel, offers an unparalleled connection with nature. Set on the banks of the Urubamba River, all rooms feature river views and radiate Andean charm. Exquisite cuisine features organic produce from the hotel gardens. At a lower altitude than Cusco, it is the perfect place to acclimatise before visiting Machu Picchu.

THE EXPERIENCE

From January to April, which is the time of the Bimodal service of our Hiram Bingham, A Belmond Train, our guests can board our luxury train to Machu Picchu at the private station located at Rio Sagrado. The passengers will literally take the train from the comfort of their hotel, hence the name: "From your room to Machu Picchu".

Embark on this wonderful experience, without the regular station crowds and check-in's. Here you will have exclusive check-in at the private train station at Rio Sagrado, with all the comforts a truly Belmond experience has.

Avoid lines, avoid crowds and just sit and relax while enjoying a hot beverage as you get ready to board the train on a journey of a lifetime towards Machu Picchu, one of the seven wonders of the modern world, and a 2.45 hours train journey in sumptuous 1920's style.

THE TRAIN

Hiram Bingham, offers unforgettable journeys between Cusco and Machu Picchu. Guests enjoy fine dining, an exclusive mixology proposal by renowned bartender Aaron Díaz, live music and awe-inspiring views aboard the 1920s-style carriages. Leisurely journeys last 3.5 hours each leg on a Regular service; but while on Bimodal Service from Rio Sagrado's private train station the journey lasts 2.45 hours, coursing through the scenic Sacred Valley and dramatic Urubamba Valley. A private tour of the citadel is included in the experience.
