

THE CADOGAN HOTEL

Events in our Storied Townhouse

OUR HOTEL

The Cadogan, A Belmond Hotel, has stood as a refined residence at the heart of London's most coveted neighbourhoods: Chelsea, Knightsbridge, and Belgravia. A storied townhouse reimagined as a collection of 54 exquisite rooms and suites, The Cadogan offers the intimate charm of a cherished home, elevated by Belmond's signature impeccable service.

The Cadogan provides an ideal base for exploring London's thriving cultural scene. For moments of serenity amidst the city's energy, privileged access awaits just beyond the hotel's doors - the leafy Cadogan Place Gardens, complete with private tennis courts. Retreating into an atmosphere of grace and discretion, guests will discover familiar comforts in Willett's, a neighborhood-first, all-day British bistro. Executive Chef Michael Turner has meticulously crafted a menu that honours classic recipes and places the finest seasonal produce at the centre of every plate. Meanwhile, The Drawing Room offers a versatile space, perfect for everything from a cozy morning read to an evening cocktail, truly a place you can call your own from dawn till dusk.
