VISIT GUANAJUATO

One of our favorite cities in Mexico. A Silver Town that has been the site of major national historical events. We will begin at the city's main viewpoint, where we can appreciate the entire city and understand its peculiar geography. We will have the opportunity to go down by the city's funicular or walk down through the traditional alleyways. We will see the main monuments of the city, its market, and its tunnels that make Guanajuato such a dynamic and spectacular city.

Duration: 8 hours
Advance booking recommended

DOLORES HIDALGO & ATOTONILCO

Explore lavender fields at Proyecto Lavanda and discover the art of soap-making. Then, journey to Dolores Hidalgo, birthplace of Mexico's independence, to visit monuments and taste unique ice cream. Conclude in Atotonilco, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, where an 18th-century church—dubbed the Sistine Chapel of Latin America—dazzles with its Baroque frescoes. A cultural adventure not to miss.

Duration: 6 hours
