

DIA DE MUERTOS IN MAROMA

As marigolds bloom and candlelight dances across the shores of the Riviera Maya, Maroma invites you to experience the magic of Dia de Muertos.

Inspired by the rich cultural traditions of Oaxaca and Michoacán, the evening unfolds through vibrant altars, seasonal libations, live music and a feast of beloved regional flavors. Gather with family and friends to celebrate remembrance in the Mexican way: not with sorrow, but with joy, gratitude and a profound appreciation for life.

Beneath a sea of candles and stars, discover an evening where tradition, community and celebration come together in unforgettable fashion.

NOVEMBER 2
FROM 6:30PM
TOLOK / ACUARIOS POOL

Guided by the flicker of candlelight and the scent of marigolds, begin the evening among vibrant altars and seasonal libations at Tolok. As music drifts through the air, journey to Acuarios Pool, where the flavors of Oaxaca and Michoacán, floating mariachis, and reflections dancing across the water come together in a celebration of memory, tradition, and life itself. A hand-drawn caricature offers a lasting keepsake of this unforgettable night.
