ESCAPE TO THE ISLAND OF ETERNAL SPRING THIS EASTER

Easter at Reid's Palace is truly wonderful. It's a time to revel in Madeira's long hours of sunshine and our myriad blooming flowers.

The moment you enter our gorgeously decorated lobby, there's a feeling of relaxed indulgence. Sample the delicious sweets we've prepared for your arrival and take a deep, restorative breath. We're here to ensure your Easter break is eggstraordinary, unforgettable and as rejuvenating as springtime.

We've got some exciting family activities lined up. Join a class to make almonds dipped in chocolate, sugar or caramel. Discover the legend of the Easter bunny, as told by our enchanting storyteller. Paint an Easter egg in your uniquely creative style, take part in a botanical art workshop, and hunt down as many eggs as you can!

Our team at Reid's Palace wishes you a wonderful Easter break and we look forward to taking care of your every need.

Let's decorate the giant egg

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5TH AT 11:00

To kick off the Easter break in lively style, the Fun@Reid's team invites everyone to help decorate the thatched cottage. The excitement begins with the hanging of our Easter sign and grows with the painting of our giant egg. The masterpiece will then be put on display at Fun@Reid's throughout the celebrations, so that everyone can admire it.

Botanical art workshop : Easter edition

SATURDAY, APRIL 8TH AT 11:00

A variety of dried and hand-pressed flowers in shades of pink, purple and warm tones, used in Madeiran households to celebrate the Easter season, have been carefully picked and preserved by floral artist Tristoas for this memorable workshop. During the activity she will guide you through the process of creating a beautiful composition using island wildflowers, while also sharing different techniques for pressing and preserving plants. Suitable for all ages, this experience lets you explore your creativity and take home a unique botanical memento of your Easter break.
